

TSHA Fast Facts

TSHA was founded in 1953, offering services for more than fifty years to anyone affected by hearing loss.

A state-of-the-art equipment lab allows clients to “try before you buy” many pieces of expensive assistive technology. Items range from amplified phones to FM Systems.

TSHA operates Oklahoma’s oldest & largest interpreter referral program.

TSHA holds events for children, including a summer day camp and the popular Children’s Holiday Party.

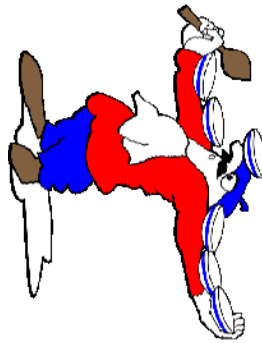

The Children’s Hearing Aid Project offers financial assistance for hearing aids for children age 18 or younger.

Typical topics covered in the Independent Living Program include: housekeeping, money management, legal concerns, transportation, personal hygiene, consumer information, communication and community services.

TSHA has been a Tulsa Area United Way Partner Agency since 1970.

A Red Carpet Event

TSHA's 30th Souper Sunday

Get ready for the paparazzi! On March 4th, we will be rolling out the red carpet for TSHA's 30th annual Souper Sunday.

Join us for an afternoon of 'award-winning' soups and more at this family friendly, all-you-can-eat event, the main fundraiser for TSHA (Total Source for Hearing-loss and Access).

Over 650 people attended in 2011

150 volunteers help at each Souper Sunday

The celebration begins at 3:30 p.m. with a silent auction extravaganza! Be sure to include time to bid on the great items in our HUGE silent auction.

FAQs

Where does the money go?

ALL proceeds go to TSHA. See the back of this brochure for more information on what TSHA does.

What does my ticket include?

$7.50 of each ticket covers your meal. The remainder is tax-deductible. Your ticket grants your admission, all-you-can-eat soup, bread & dessert, and access to our silent auction.

What should I wear?

Our theme may be glamorous, but this is the same casual event it's always been.

What if I can't attend?

We hope you will consider a donation in any amount. You can donate tickets for a deaf or hard-of-hearing person who can't afford to attend. Or you can donate items for the silent auction or help us connect with new partners.

What participants say:

"Souper Sunday ROCKS!"

— Deaf young adult

"It is always like a reunion. It is fun signing with old school friends and catching up on what they are doing now."

— Volunteer/hard-of-hearing later in life

"This is one of the best events to attend in Tulsa. There was outstanding food, great auction items & the nicest people helping."

— First-time attendee
